●●● TRAINING BIO

With nearly 30 years of experience as an employment attorney, notably with the Massachusetts legislature, Tom Jones stands out as a seasoned trainer. Renowned for his deep understanding of federal and state employment laws, Tom excels at framing questions for meaningful answers, enriching training with real-world experiences. As a keen listener, he adeptly guides participants, ensuring their questions yield valuable insights.

Tom's 40-year teaching tenure at UMass Boston refines his ability to tailor content for diverse audiences. His bilingual proficiency enhances accessibility, especially for Spanish-speaking employees. Tom's passion for tennis and biking mirrors his commitment to dynamic and enriched training sessions.

Tom pulled the attendees in for examples and used relatable case studies. He asks great questions to keep our attention.
